

Educational Psychology Services

A specialist recruitment agency based in the UK, providing Educational Psychologists nationally and internationally. Our team of consultants have been providing Psychologists in the UK Education Sector for over 20 years providing Permanent, Interim and Temporary recruitment services. SSR has an established candidate database of vetted candidates, where we vigorously check the current professional status, education, criminal records and training of each individual before allocating them to a client.

Our qualified EP's hold the HCPC recognition and have experience of delivering a portfolio of services from Consultation & Assessments to Educational Intervention & Programmes. We manage the Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) of individuals we supply. Through our preferred supplier status, we provide Educational Psychologists to local authorities and the private sector, from the South West in Bristol to St Andrews in Scotland. Since 2013, we have been successfully supplying Psychology staff on a global basis, notably the UAE through our registered office in Dubai. Contact us in confidence, to discuss how we can assist your recruitment needs.
